PPPA Faculty Accomplishments 2015-2016

Books

Articles

Beaudoin, Justin, Y. Hossein Farzin, & C.-Y. Cynthia Lin Lawell (2015). Public transit investment and sustainable transportation: A review of studies of transit's impact on traffic congestion and air quality," Research in Transportation Economics, 52: 15-22.

Compson, J. “Cultivating the Contemplative Mind in Cyberspace: Field notes from pedagogical experiments in fully online classes.” Accepted for publication in Journal of Contemplative Inquiry. Forthcoming.

Book Chapters and Encyclopedia Entries

Hanneman, Mary, Modern East Asia: China, Japan, Korea and Vietnam in the Modern Era, Lead Author and Editor (with Yi Li, Wayne Patterson and James Anderson), Cognella Press, in progress.

   ‘Cosmopolitan Citizenship’
   ‘Karl-Otto Apel’
   ‘Knowledge Anthropology’
   ‘Philosophical Anthropology’

Book Reviews

Opinion Pieces

Presentations

Sarah Hampson presented Bringing Obergefell to all levels of the Undergraduate Classroom.” With Daniel Tagliarina. Paper presented at the American Political Science Teaching and Learning Conference, Portland, OR, Feb 2016.

Ben Meiches Presented “The Nazi Genocide and the Limits of Security” at the International Studies Annual Convention, March 16-March 19, Atlanta, GA.

Ben Meiches Presented “The Peril of Genocide” at the Western Political Science Association Annual Meeting, March 24-March 26, San Diego, CA.

Nascimento, A. ‘Derechos Humanos y Multiculturalismo’ at Conferencia en Homenaje a la Profa. Esther M. Quinteiro, Universidad de Salamanca, Spain (October 4-6, 2016)

Nascimento, A. ‘A Duty to Plurality: Multicultural perspectives on religion’ at the Conference on Public Theology at Reutlingen School of Theology, Reutlingen, Germany (October 1-3, 2016)

Nascimento, A. ‘A Duty to Plurality: Multicultural and intercultural challenges to normativity’ at the Conference of the Justitia Amplificata Research Group, Bad Homburg, Germany (July 17, 2015)

Nascimento, A. ‘Cosmopolitanism in Europe and Latin America,’ Exzellenzcluster “Normative Orders,” Forschungskolleg Humanwissenschaften, Bad Homburg, Germany (July 6, 2015)
Nascimento, A. ‘Human Dignity and the Plurality of Justifications in Human Rights’ at the Workshop of the Normative Orders Exzellenzcluster, Forschungskolleg Humanwissenschaften, Bad Homburg, Germany (June 12-13, 2015)

Public Talks

Etga Ugur, “Muslim Voices Against Extremism,” Portland State University, Jan 19, 2016.

Fellowships and Grants Applications

Bugyis, E.; Bruch, E.; Compson, J.; Crawford, R.; Meiches, B.; Nascimento, A. received SIAS funding for the “International Week on Human Rights, Immigration, and Cosmopolitanism” (events scheduled for October 25-26, 2016 at UW Tacoma).

Talbott, W. and Nascimento, A. received funding from the Simpson Center for the Humanities, the Office of Global Affairs, and the Department of Philosophy for the International Conference on “Immigration, Toleration, and Human Rights” at UW Seattle on October 27-28, 2016

Nascimento, A. Fellow of the Exzellenzcluster Herausbildung normativer Ordnungen, University of Frankfurt, 2015.

Compson, J. received SIAS research and teaching development funding for “‘Dr. Kerzin Visit, Altruism in Medicine and Global Health.”, October 2016.

Other Activities

Katie Baird spent this fall at the University of Bergen (Norway) as a visiting scholar in the UW-UiB faculty exchange program. The winter and this spring I taught two courses. One of the courses (TPHL 251 Data and Discourse) is a new course that PPPA just developed for our new methods class. I was the first to teach it.
Michael Forman convened the panel Dimensions of Inequality: Critical Theories in Transition at the 24th World Congress of the International Political Science Association in Poznan, Poland (June 2016).

Mary Hanneman will present a paper, “Comparative Nationalisms: Late 19th and Early 20th Century Indian and Japanese Intellectual Responses to Modernity,” at a conference co-hosted by Maynaguri College and Parimal Mitra Smriti Mahavidyalaya in West Bengal, India, in November, 2016.

William McGuire was invited to participate in a panel discussion on Xi Jinping’s visit to Tacoma on KBTC’s Northwest Now

Jane Compson co-organized and moderated quarterly public talks on Conversations in Medical Ethics with the West Pierce MultiCare Ethics Committee. December 2015, February 2016, May 2016, August 2016.

Sarah Hampson, Eric Bugyis and Tom Cobb organized the Religion, Law and Society speaker series during the 2015-16 academic year.