

Dispensing Audiologist – Santa Fe, NM

Southwestern Hearing Center is the only medically-based audiology and hearing aid practice in Santa Fe. Our physicians, audiologists and support staff work cohesively to provide patients with the best care possible.

We currently have a need for a dispensing audiologist to join our team! This position will be responsible for performing comprehensive diagnostics, hearing evaluations, hearing aid dispensing, fitting and follow-up care. If you are a self-motivated individual who loves to work diligently with patients to improve their hearing, this may be the position for you!

This is a full-time position eligible for our comprehensive benefits package, which includes health insurance, generous paid time off, paid holidays, 401k, licensure and CEU reimbursement.

If you are as passionate about patient care as we are and want to be part of a team in an established clinic, we encourage you to apply today! Please submit your cover letter and résumé to careers@fuelmedical.com.

Santa Fe, New Mexico, is the state's capital. Renowned for its Pueblo-style architecture, the picturesque town sits adjacent to the Santa Fe National Forest. It offers an abundance of outdoor activities and boasts a very temperate climate, averaging 300 sunny days per year. Santa Fe's history and strong cultural roots run deep. The rich heritage spawned a food-lover's paradise and a vibrant arts scene. The area is also home to a number of colleges and one of the state's top elementary schools, making it an ideal community in which to raise children.
