

APPOINTMENT TO THE AFFILIATE FACULTY

Individuals may be appointed to the affiliate faculty of the Department of Biological Structure if they contribute to and enhance the Department's teaching or research programs. These individuals may include:

Individuals who hold faculty appointments at other institutions.

Members of the faculty at the WAMI Universities who participate in the teaching of courses primarily concerned with the anatomic disciplines.

Members of the medical, dental, or scientific community not appointed at a University.